Equipping Missionaries World Wide

Monthly Newsletter of Ed & Linda Baker - November, 2012

November has been a month to fully recover from our time working at Children of Zion Village in Namibia. In the 2 months we were away, we only had 1 day off, so we now feel we have fully transitioned back to the states – both mentally & physically.

We had a special time this month as a colleague of ours from Ghana came to visit. We had the pleasure of visiting Sue Kolljeski in her home in Lawra, Ghana, back in September, 2011. It was fun to catch up on how our different ministries are developing. We celebrated an early Thanksgiving with Sue and our colleagues at The Mission Society's home office.

It's always a blessing to spend Thanksgiving with our family. This year, we celebrated the first birthday of our youngest grandson, Gage. His birthday is Nov. 20th, so we stayed to eat turkey dinner with his family. We also enjoy worshipping with our daughter's family in California. What a treat to see our grandsons in church!

We always like to revisit some of our former projects. Rarely do we get to visit with the project "owners" here in the states. You may recall that our first GRT project was in Choluteca, Honduras. We first met Pastor Fidel Bardales & his wife Pastoria Cheley in September, 2010. We wanted to help them with a well project before leaving Nicaragua; but the rains CAME! It was impossible to get any equipment into where their church was located. This project was finished in March, 2011, by our drilling friends with Amigos for Christ. Fidel & Cheley were able to come to the United States last month, and we had the pleasure of visiting with them. They shared with us that about 15 to 20 families are able to use the clean water from the well. With about 5 persons per family, that's 75 to 100 people the Pastors are able to evangelize. To God be the Glory!

Global Resources

We had our annual Global Resource Team (GRT) meeting this past month. None of us are located in the same state, so we decided to save traveling expenses and have a telephone/video conference. It is always uplifting to hear how other members of the GRT are serving missionaries worldwide. We missed the personal touch that comes with a face-to-face meeting, but the time & expenses saved made "tele-meeting" very affordable.

One of the great aspects of living in the US is having available Christian literature. Daily we read the Abundant Living Devotional by E. Stanley Jones. This month Pastor Jones quoted Celsus: "These Christians love each other even before they are acquainted." He also says that "The church is the one unbroken fellowship around the world." As missionaries serving missionaries, we see how true these statements are.

We'll close with some more photos of our time in Namibia. Please pray for the country of Namibia, and for the children at the Children of Zion Village.

*In His Service,
Ed & Linda Baker*
